

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

20th November 1997

Prince Philip and I are delighted and deeply impressed with the marvellous work of restoration of the fire damaged area of Windsor Castle. Being anxious to show our appreciation of the skill and dedication, which you and the others involved in the project have devoted to it, we have had this special medallion struck to mark the completion of the restoration and it comes with our grateful thanks.

Elizabeth R

Steven Lawrence, Esq.